EXPRESSIONS

Expressions- we use them everyday. We smile to express we're happy. We frown when we're sad. We sing to express that we're joyful. We pout when we're upset. We express ourselves through our hobbies and our talents. We also use expressions to represent our everyday moods and feelings. However, aren't they more than just ordinary indications of our moods and feelings?

Expression is one of the most beautiful qualities God has instilled in mankind. But too often this is used to glorify the wrong things. God created us to express our love back to Him and to glorify Him in different ways. This is seen through our talents, words and actions. God has made us individuals, yet we fit within the body of Christ. God designed us in such a way that when we see our different expressions we come together, and it is a beautiful chorus of praise back to Him.

As we think back on this year's journey, let's reflect on all the amazing things that God has done in our lives through our experiences here at CIU. Some may have been encouraging and uplifting, while others were tough and challenging. Whatever the situation, remember that God uses every experience for the good of those who love Him (Romans 8:28), and He has done it for the advancement of His great glory throughout the world. Be encouraged, as God is not finished working in you (Philippians 1:6), and He will continue to grow and purify His Church until the day that Christ returns; and on that day we will all join in one heavenly chorus, unified in our expressions of glory to God, the Father Almighty.

The Father loves us dearly, let's never forget to daily express what He means to us.

DR. BILL JONES PRESIDENT

Dear 2009 Graduates,

"Did you ever think you would make it? I knew you would. For some, your education has been an exhilarating time, for others, you've just grinded it out. But now, seniors, you have completed the rigors of academics and demonstrated the discipline necessary to graduate from Columbia International University. Your perseverance expresses personal grit, fortitude, and determination. But our expressions of accomplishments pale in comparison to the expression by Christ.

The greatest expression of love, Christ on the cross; the greatest expression of servant hood, Christ washing the disciples feet; the greatest expression of prayer, Christ in the Garden; the greatest expression of compassion, Christ healing the paralytic; the greatest expression of power, Christ raising Lazarus; the greatest expression of friendship, Peter, James and John; and the greatest expression of forgiveness, the thief on the cross and you and me!

We can best express our love to our Lord through the offering of a holy life. Peter describes this life in his first epistle, chapter one, verses fourteen to sixteen, "As obedient children, do not conform to the evil desires you had when you lived in ignorance. But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do; for it is written: "Be holy, because I am holy."

The reality of our year verse comes alive in the expression of Christ. As we endeavor to live pure, holy and upright, we are literally striving to Follow in His Steps, (1 Peter 2:21) our year verse.

May I encourage you, as you graduate from CIU and pursue the endeavors in the marketplace, the ministry or on the mission field, to follow in His steps. Follow hard after Him, and make His expressions your expressions.

We love you and we will miss you. Pursue Christ! Follow in His steps!"

Bill Jones

"I have a better understanding of God's unconditional love for me and how Christ loves the church because of the way that Joel loves me as a husband."

– Mrs. Williams

Joel Williams is a man dedicated to the Lord, to his family, and to Columbia International University; he has shown integrity in serving the Lord. Whether serving in Singapore at the Theological Center for Asia, or as an assistant professor at Dallas Theological Seminary, the Lord has used Dr. Williams in great ways.

He has been married to Becky Williams for 22 years and has three children: Anna, Matthew and Luke. He has served as a professor at CIU since 1993. In addition to his role as the Biblical Studies Division Chairman, he is also the Biblical Languages program director. Joel enjoys studying the Bible and teaches New Testament Survey, first and second year Greek, the Gospel of Mark, and various Bible electives.

Dr. Williams' involvement with the body of Christ does not just include CIU, but to the local church as well. He is involved at Riverbend Community Church working with youth and married couples. It is said of him that there is no difference between the way he lives his life before others and when no one is watching. Glory be to God for creating Joel Williams! The Lord is using him to teach the next generation of students to serve God with all their heart. His life is truly an expression of God's glory!

MEMORIAL

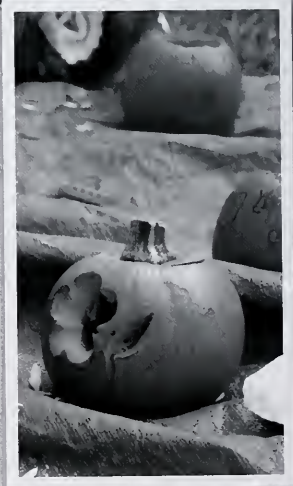

DEDICATION

At the beginning of the 2008 Spring Semester, the CIU administration began the process of renovating the Memorial Dormitory. After months of hard work, the building was finally completed, with several new additions. The building is named for the past CIU students who have been martyred for the cause of Christ.

HARVEST FEST

There was plenty of fun to be had at CIU's annual fall celebration, Harvest Fest. This year's festival featured games, face-painting, pumpkin carving, and a singing, ice-cream loaded hay-ride!

LIFE OF CIU

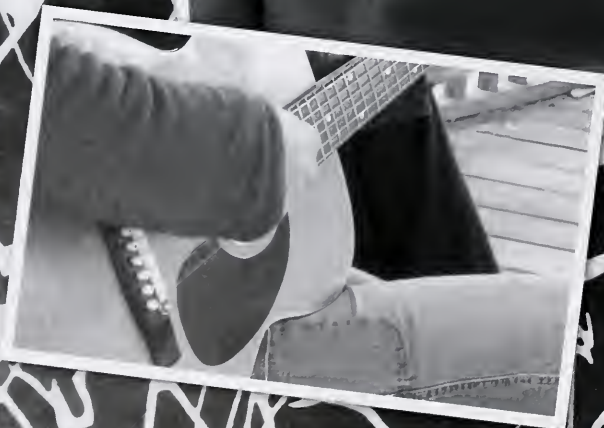

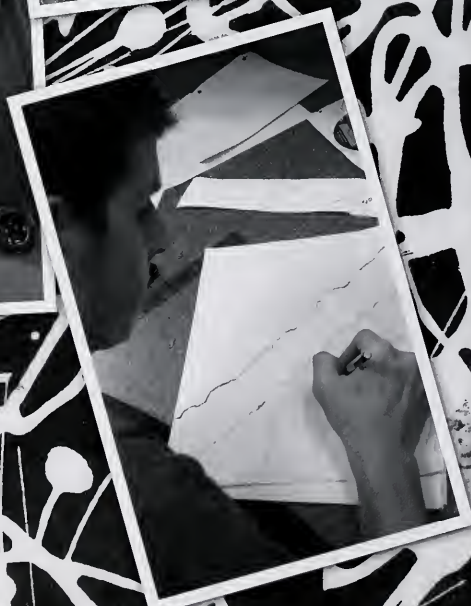

November 13th, 2008 was a normal day for many CIU students, but for a CIU photography class, it was a day to photograph everyone, well...being normal. "A day in the life of CIU" was a project assigned to this class to put on display the skills they learned over the course of the semester. The challenge was to capture CIU in it's essence throughout the day at various different locations on campus. The result: a look into the hearts and adventures of a body of people constantly expressing their love for Christ.

Extreme MAKEOVER DORM EDITION

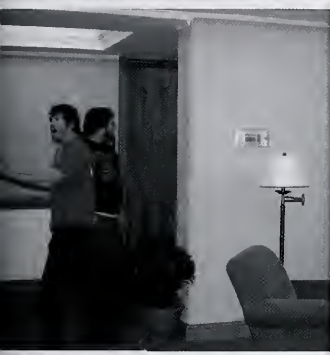

MEMORIAL

BEFORE

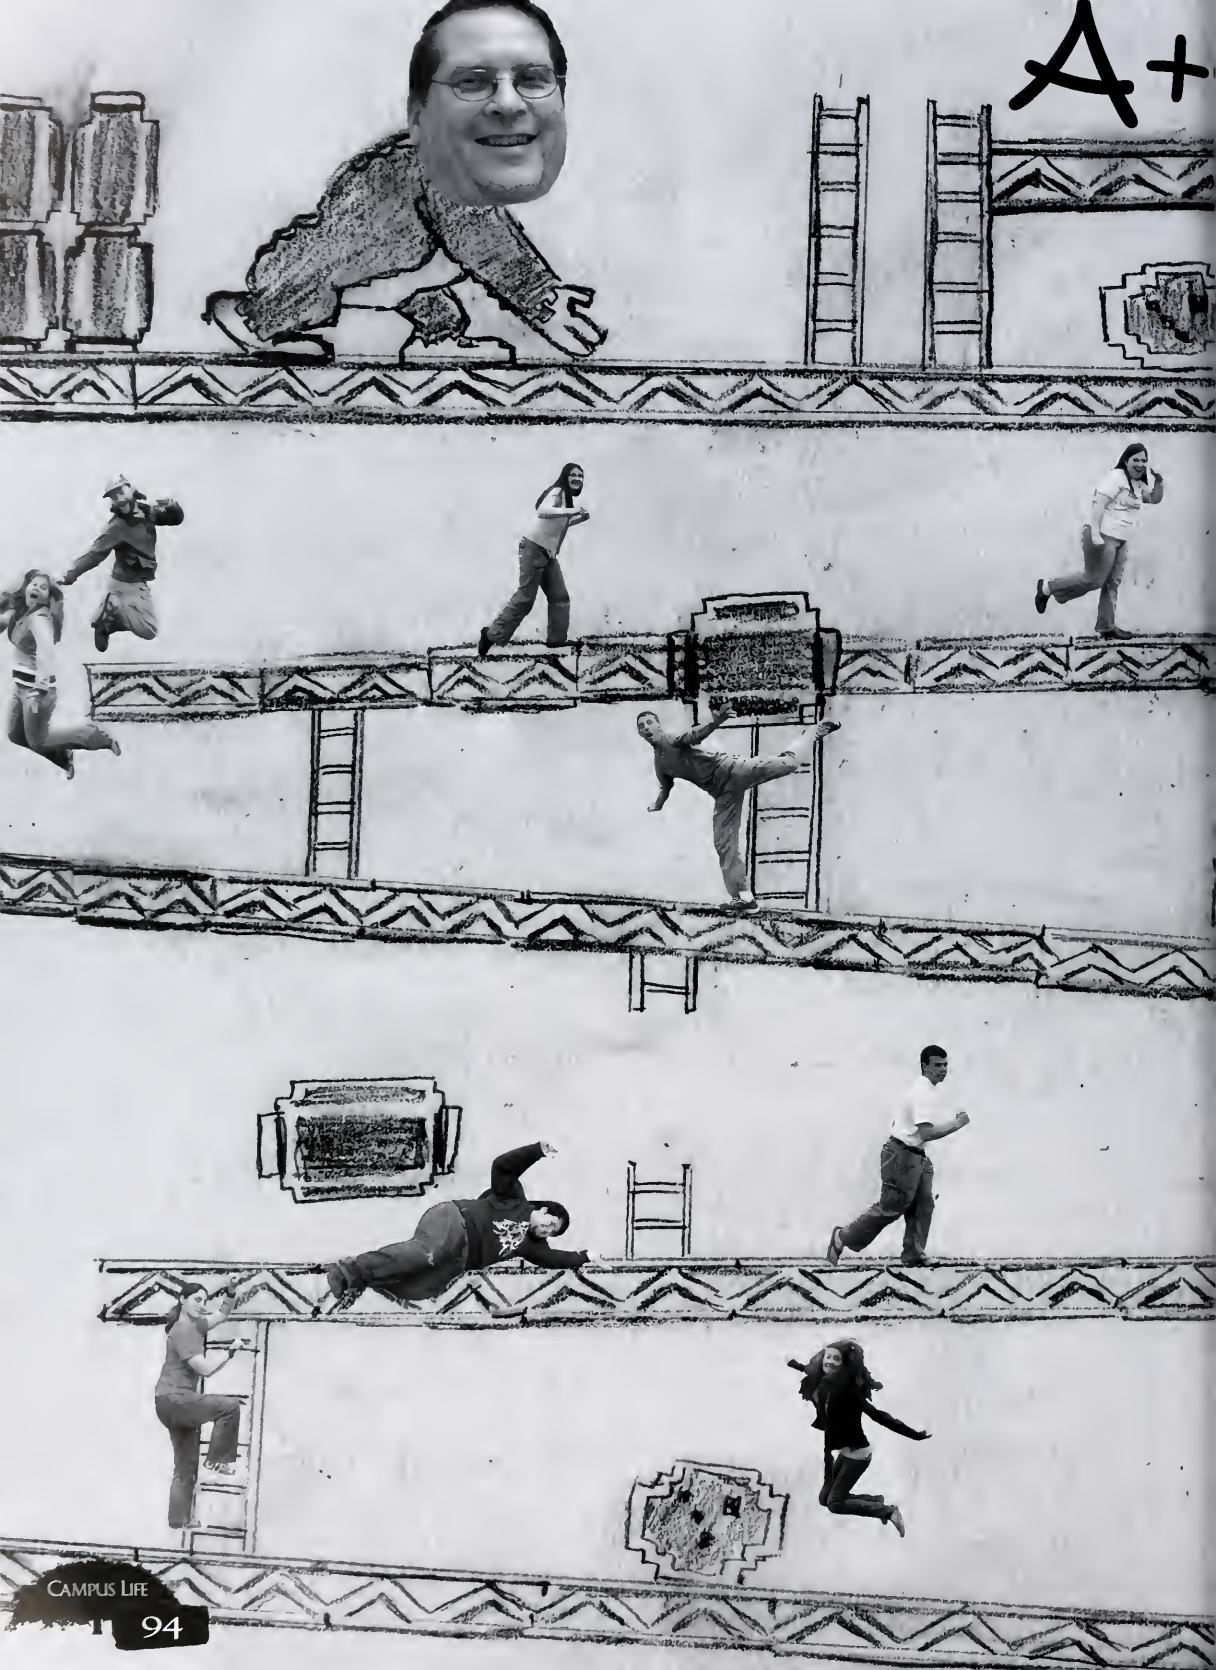

In the 2008 spring semester, CIU undertook the process of renovating one of the most central and iconic buildings on its campus, the Memorial Dormitory. Over 50 residents of Memorial were temporarily relocated to other dorms while the renovation took place. Included in these renovations were some much needed modern-day comforts. Each room was equipped with new movable furniture, refrigerators, microwaves, kitchen counter tops, digital air conditioners, and several other accessories that make college life a lot better. A study room was added, where tutoring is now available daily, and a new movie theater-style TV room was built, giving the basement a much more "loungy" feel.

This renovation meant a lot to the residents of these halls, and it has truly been a blessing and encouragement for all involved. "CIU has impressed me with their efforts to improve our campus facilities," said Jason Koshy, a third-year resident of Memorial 3. "This shows their dedication to the student body, and I am grateful that they are taking such measures to support me throughout my college experience."

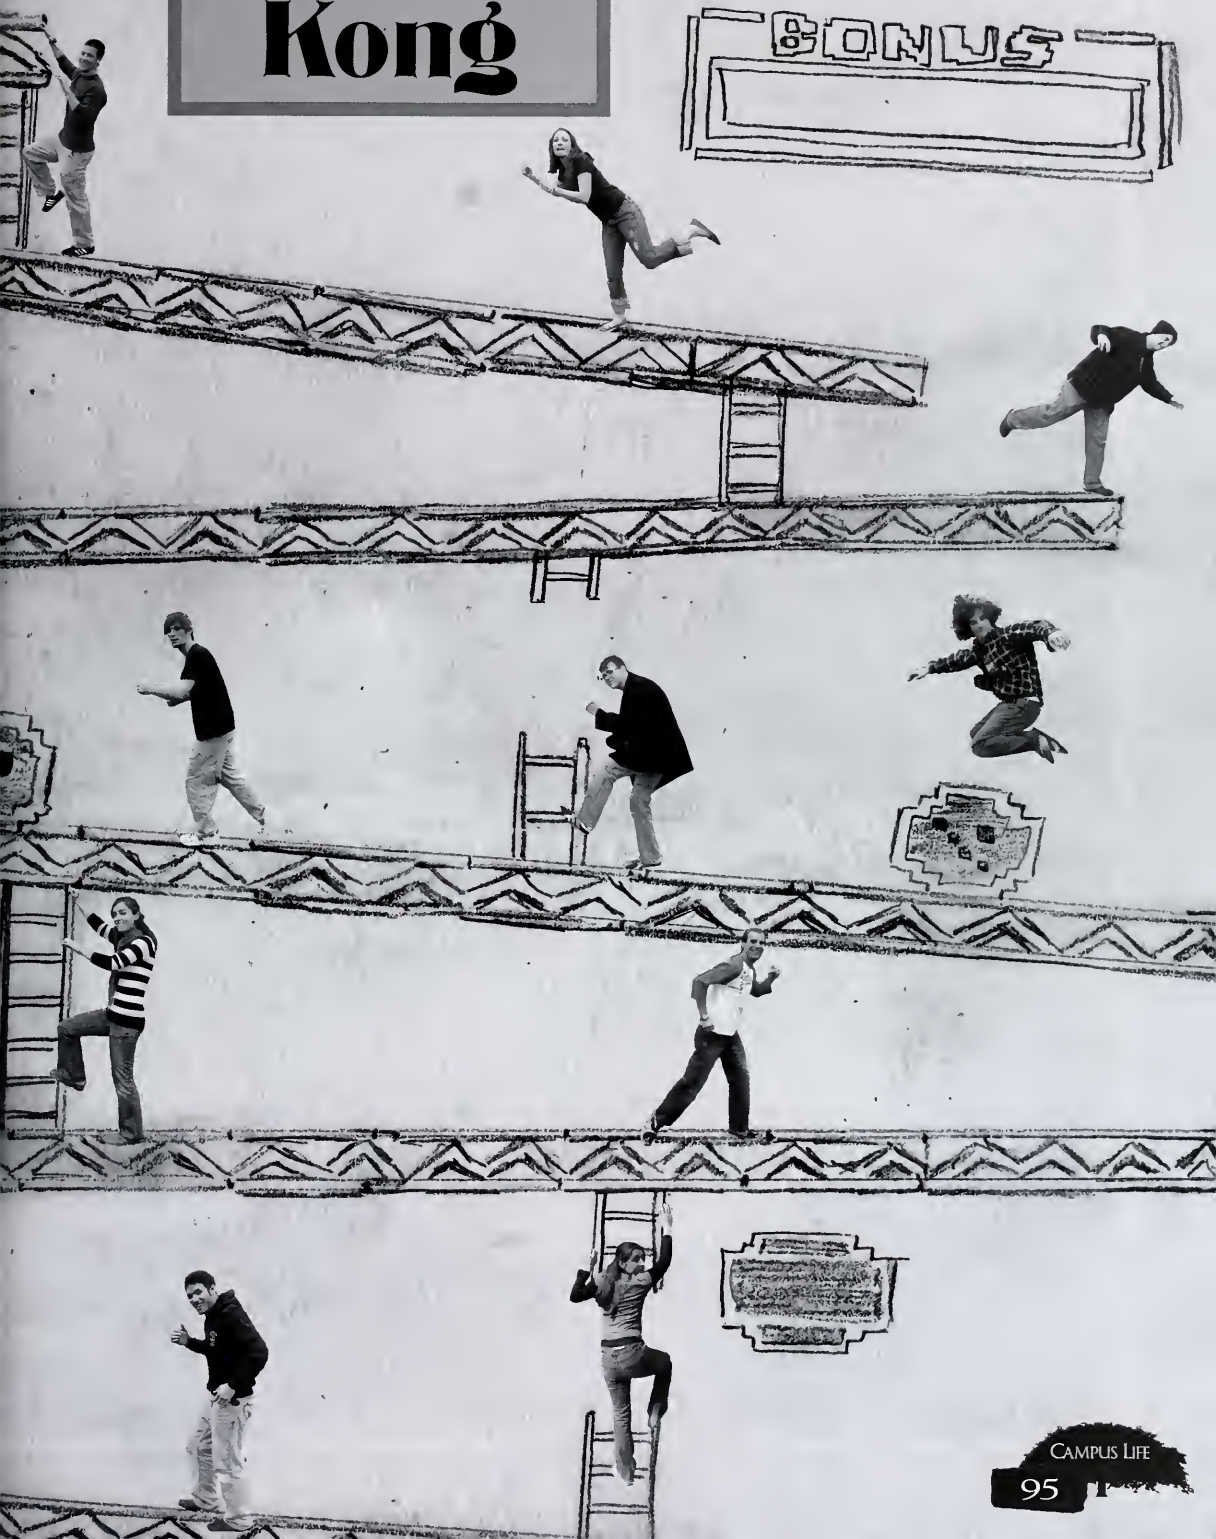

There is a fresh, new sight on the CIU horizon. Complete with rooftop, Memorial truly feels a lot more like home.

A WORD FROM THE EDITOR

Wow, what a year this has been! As editor of this year's Finial, I have had the great privilege of observing the many happenings of this year. I have been greatly encouraged upon seeing the Lord work through this great body of believers as the year stretched onto these pages. I have truly been a witness to a generation of believers ready to commit their lives as an Expression of Christ's glory.

This idea of "Expression" is one that God has been stirring in me over the last few years, and it has become a great passion of mine. I believe that within this very body there lies a sleeping giant. God has given us a great wealth of talent, creativity, and passion with which to worship Him. These gifts are beautiful, and God wants us to use these gifts throughout our daily lives. He wants us to develop them and grow in them, for the specific purpose of worshipping Him with them. When we do this, the "Expression" we present to God can be seen by the world. He gets all the glory.

So ask yourself: What do you do well? What are you passionate about? Maybe you have an eye for the arts, or you love producing videos, or maybe you just really love working on cars. Whatever your talent or passion is, God has given it to you for the purpose of glorifying Him! Work hard at cultivating it and doing it well. But remember, we do not seek to do it well for our own gain and glory; we do this so that Christ is exalted among the nations, and so that all mankind may hear the gospel. I believe that if we have this attitude, we can use our gifts at a higher level than anyone in the world. As a result, Christ's great Expression of love will be known among all the nations.

I want to thank the Finial staff for the hard work that they put into this yearbook. They all worked hard at seeing Christ exalted as we covered the events of this year. I am very proud to have been a member of a team that worked so hard to glorify Christ with their talents. Thank you guys! And thanks to all our CIU family for making this a great year! To God be all the glory!

-Brice Bigham

COLOPHON

The 70th edition of the Finial was published in Winston-Salem, NC by Jostens Printing and Publishing Company. I can't believe this book is really done. The press run was 700 copies. Drew Wilson was an excellent assistant. The book was printed on 80 pound high gloss paper and the end sheets are 100 pound paper. Sarah Anderson is one of the most talented artists I have ever seen. The title font was Aloft, and the copy font was Chantilly. Sarah Nixon's organization photos came out amazing! The Finial was produced using a Window's based computer and printed in HP Laser Jet 2200DTN. Thanks for all the hard work Lisa and Caitlin! The pictures were digital and the pages were submitted on CD and sent to the plant. How amazing were the pictures this year? A round of applause please for Justin, Josiah, Lauren, Rachel, and Grimsley! You guys did a great job! The OS was Windows XP and the application used to design each page was Adobe InDesign CS integrated with Jostens software. Thank you Dr. Dan for the direction, guidance, and constructive criticism you gave to us this year. World's best boss everybody! The Jostens representative was David Patrick and the plant representative was Kat Beliveau. Thank you Ms. McInnis for teaching me how to do this, you have no idea how much the Lord used you in my life! May the Lord bless you and keep you always! Romans 5:8 says that "God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." And Romans 8:1 says: "Therefore there is no condemnation for those in Christ Jesus." Christ loves you so much that He died so that you can live with Him for all eternity. That is the Greatest Expression.
